

State Level Eligibility Test

General SLET Exam Structure

The SLET exam is divided into two papers:

- Paper I: General Paper on Teaching and Research Aptitude
- Paper II: Subject-specific Paper (based on the subject chosen by the candidate)

Paper I: General Paper on Teaching and Research Aptitude

This paper is common for all candidates, irrespective of the subject chosen. It assesses general knowledge and teaching/research aptitude.

- Teaching Aptitude
  - Teaching: Concept, Objectives, Learner Characteristics
  - Methods of Teaching: Lectures, Demonstration, Discussions, etc.
  - Teaching Aids and Technologies in Teaching
  - Evaluation Systems
  - Student-Centred Teaching
- Research Aptitude
  - Research and General Awareness in Social, Political, Cultural, and Educational contexts
  - Data Interpretation and Analysis
  - Research Tools and Techniques
- Reading Comprehension
  - Understanding and interpreting passages Data Interpretation and Analysis
  - Drawing inferences and conclusions
- Communication
  - Types of communication: Verbal and Non-verbal
  - Barriers to communication
  - Effective communication in teaching
- Reasoning (Including Mathematical)
  - Logical Reasoning: Analogy, Classification, Series, etc.
  - Quantitative Reasoning: Percentage, Ratio, Averages, Profit and Loss
  - Data Interpretation: Graphs, Charts, Tables, etc.
- People and Environment
  - Environmental issues and policies.
  - Ecosystem, biodiversity, and climate change
- Higher Education System
  - Institutions and their functions
  - Structure of Higher Education in India
  - Policies, Regulatory Bodies, and Funding Agencies

Paper II: Subject-Specific Paper

This paper tests the candidate's knowledge of the subject they have chosen. The syllabus for Paper II depends entirely on the subject you select, and it generally follows the syllabus of UGC-NET. Here are some common topics covered in various subjects:

English Literature ○ History of English

Literature (Old English to Modern)

- Major Literary Movements
- Genres (Poetry, Drama, Fiction, etc.)
- Literary Criticism and Theory
- Important Works and Authors

Political Science

- ○ Political Theory
- ○ Indian Politics
- ○ Comparative Politics
- ○ International Relations ○ Public Administration

History

- ○ Ancient, Medieval, and Modern History of India
- ○ World History
  - Indian Culture and Heritage
  - National Movement and Modern Indian History

Commerce

- ○ Business Organization and Management
- ○ Financial Accounting
  - Marketing, Human Resource Management
  - Business Law and Ethics
  - International Business

Economics

- ○ Microeconomics and Macroeconomics
- ○ Indian Economy
- ○ Development Economics
  - Statistical Methods and Econometrics

Education

- ○ Foundations of Education
- ○ Educational Psychology
- ○ Curriculum and Pedagogy
- ○ Educational Technology
- Administration and Management of Education